More Than Light. We Create Atmosphere.

At STARVOX, we believe lighting is more than illumination. It creates atmosphere. Shapes emotion. Transforms experiences.

A warm glow can turn dinner into a memorable evening. The , IP-rated protection, smart controls, and efficient charging solutions, right light can transform a table, terrace, or entire hospitality space. That's where STARVOX began—with a simple idea:

"Great lighting should make people feel something"

Built for Hospitality

Hospitality moves fast. Restaurants stay busy. Hotels operate around the clock. Outdoor spaces face changing conditions. Lighting needs to keep up.

That's why STARVOX combines refined design with dependable performance to create cordless lighting solutions built for the demands of modern hospitality.

Our products are designed to be beautiful, durable, easy to use. Our complete cordless lighting solutions are designed to help teams work every detail serves a purpose. Because you shouldn't have to choose between: Style and performance. Beauty and durability. Design and practicality. With STARVOX, you get both and ready for everyday commercial environments. Smarter and keep spaces ready for service. Less time managing equipment.

STARVOX

More Than Light.
We Create Atmosphere.

DESIGNED FOR HOSPITALITY.
ENGINEERED FOR PERFORMANCE.
MADE TO INSPIRE.

DESIGNED FOR HOSPITALITY.ENGINEERED FOR PERFORMANCE.MADE TO INSPIRE.

Freedom Without Cables

Cordless lighting changes what's possible.
No cables.No fixed placement.No unnecessary limitations.
Move the light. Change the layout. Create the atmosphere you want—indoors or outdoors.
And because hospitality is about more than the guest experience, STARVOX also focuses on what happens behind the scenes.
Charging. Storage. Organization. Daily operations.

Where Design Meets Performance

Inspired by European aesthetics and shaped by the performance-driven needs of the hospitality industry, STARVOX brings together timeless design and practical innovation.
From premium finishes and warm, high-quality light to rechargeable power

Less time managing equipment.
More time creating memorable experiences.Made for Spaces That Matter

STARVOX is designed for restaurants, hotels, resorts, bars, cafés, private clubs, outdoor venues, and commercial hospitality projects.
We partner with hospitality professionals, designers, distributors, wholesalers, and project teams who understand that every detail matters.
Because great spaces aren't remembered only for how they look.
They're remembered for how they feel.

OUR HISTORY

From a Simple Idea to a Complete Hospitality Lighting Brand

Every great brand starts with a belief:

Lighting should do more than illuminate a space.
It should create atmosphere, improve experiences, and make business easier.

YEAR	MILESTONE	OUR JOURNEY
2011	The Beginning	STARVOX was established in the United States with a clear vision: combine beautiful design with reliable performance for restaurants, hotels, and commercial spaces.
2014	The Power of Atmosphere	We learned that lighting was more than a product—it was part of the guest experience. This became a core principle behind the STARVOX brand.
2016	Design Meets Hospitality	We expanded our design direction with European-inspired aesthetics, timeless silhouettes, premium materials, refined finishes, and warm, inviting light.
2019	Built for the Real World	We strengthened our commercial engineering focus with durable construction, rechargeable batteries, high-quality LED technology, IP65 protection, and reliable controls.
2021	The Cordless Advantage	As cordless lighting grew, we recognized the need for better charging and management. STARVOX began developing centralized charging, storage, and bulk management solutions.
2023	Beyond the Lamp	STARVOX evolved from a cordless lamp supplier into a complete hospitality lighting solutions brand—focusing on product design, charging, storage, operations, logistics, and support.
TODAY	Designed for Hospitality	Today, STARVOX serves hospitality professionals, distributors, wholesalers, designers, and commercial project partners with premium cordless lighting solutions for modern spaces.
NEXT	The Future of Hospitality Lighting	We continue to pursue better design, smarter technology, stronger performance, and more efficient operations—creating lighting solutions for the next generation of hospitality.
